CAB

Campus Activities Board

CAB sponsors many campus wide programs each year. They sponsor dances, lectures, comedians, musical performers, and other special events. CAB is always looking for students to get involved with planning and producing events.

"Swing batta batta ...Swing!" Aaron O'Brien

"Come on now, you all know this answer.....almost got it....."

"Allen stay in the pool, you're already dirty!
Man what a waste of good whip cream."

SLU Double Dare

1st Annual Contest

Different students joined together to face-off in a battle against each other competing for respect and the prize. The first annual Double Dare game was held at night in the Lion's Lounge and outside of course. Teams were eliminated through a series of question rounds. The Kappa Lambda team won the final contest. The winning team was required to participate in an obstacle course that was designed by the students. Even though it may have been a messy night, the laughs were priceless. "Way to go Kappa Lambda!"

Saint Leo Ambassadors

The official hosts of the University. These students are selected to represent the college and are selected on the basis of their dedication, enthusiasm, commitment, and support of the university. They meet and greet the Alumni and assist with special events and graduation.

STAR

The Assistant of Admission Recruiters give weekly campus tours, host overnight students, and assist with campus events run by the Admission office like “Select Candidates” and “Picture This”. Meetings are held once per semester, or as needed. STAR members also participated in the end of the year Dinner, hosted by Clair Kelly and Margeaux Royals-Frey at Chilli’s or Bennigans. The STAR members also received goodies during the year which included gift bags, dinners, and movie passes.

Psychology Club

The Psychology Club is made up of psychology majors. They have weekly meetings, raise money, and have fun trips. This past year some of the members had the chance to go to SEPA (Southeastern Psychological Association) in New Orleans. They have an end of the year get together at one the professor's houses to get to say one last goodbye.

Samaritans

The Samaritans is a faith-based organization, sponsored by University Ministry. It stands for social justice and involves student volunteers in both community out-reach and spiritual programs. It is ecumenical, enabling those from all faiths and traditions to work together to create a better world. The Samaritans strive to live their motto: "Wherever you are, make a difference."

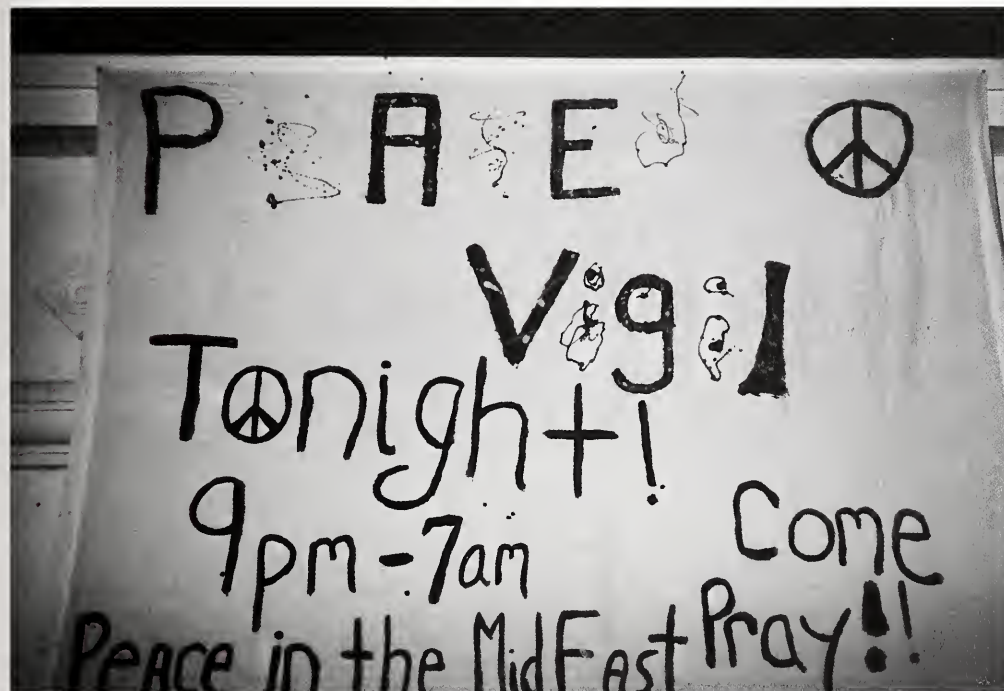

Membership to The Samartians is extended to all students at Saint Leo, and all are invited to attend any Samaritan meeting and all sponsored activities.

University Mini

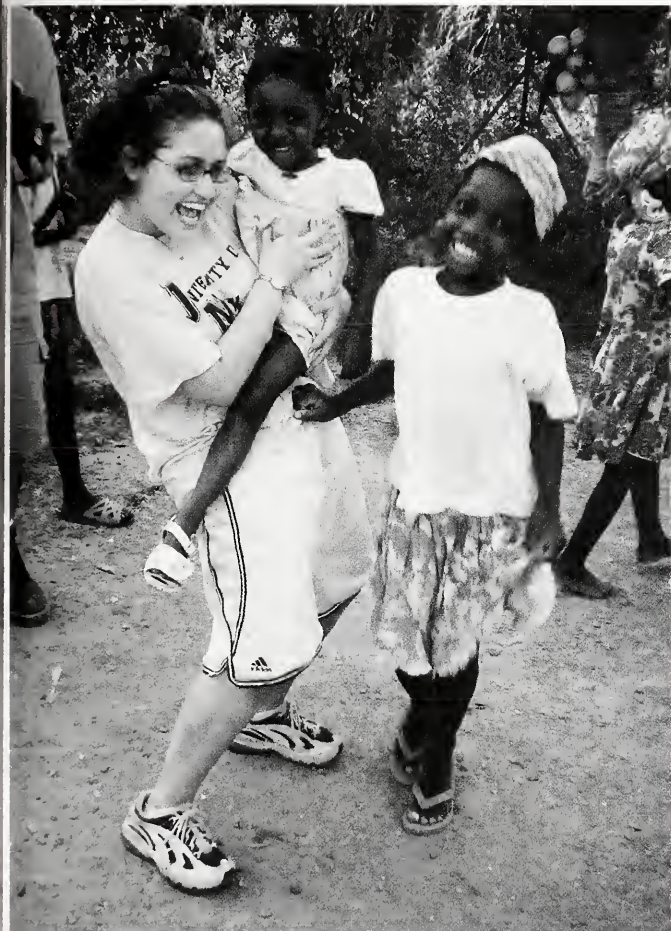

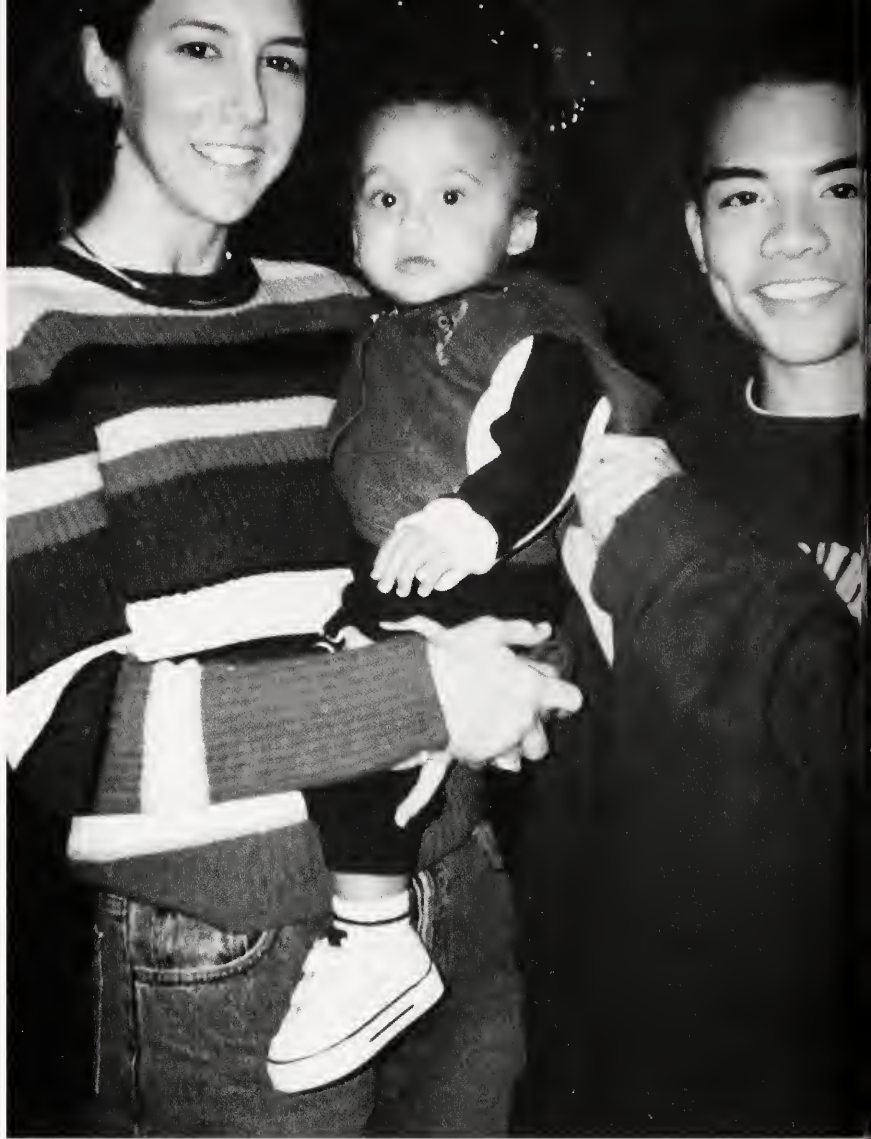

University Ministry is an ecumenical organization enabling students of all faiths and traditions to work together to build the community of Saint Leo University through social, spiritual, and volunteer service opportunities.

Haiti Mission Trip

Student Chaplains

Student Chaplains are organized by University Ministry. They are peer advisors that live in each residence hall. They are there to give spiritual advice and listen to any problems residents might have.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

FCA is a community service organization made up of Saint Leo University Varsity Athletes and now non-athletes.

FCA was formed to help spread the word of the Lord and give students the chance to learn more about scripture. FCA is mostly held off campus.

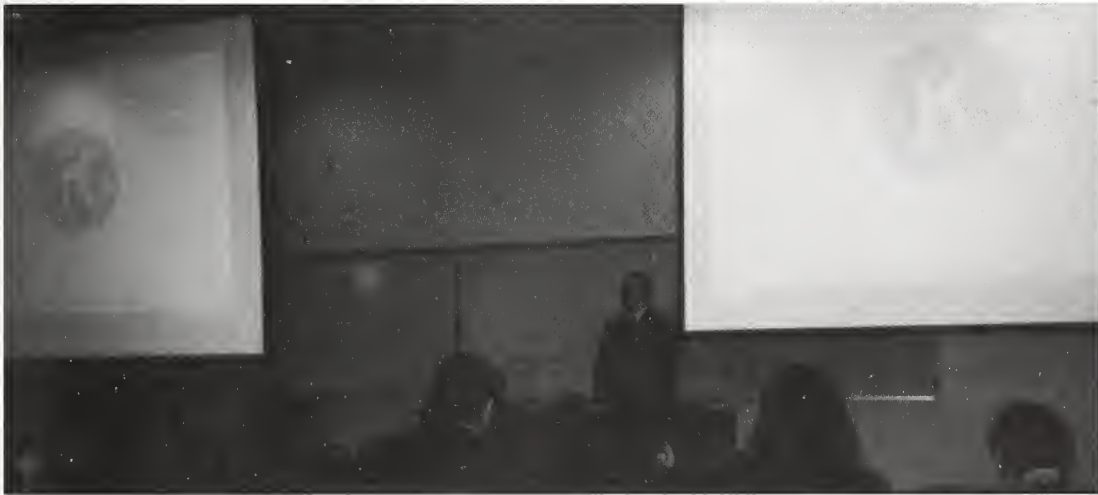

Circle K

Circle K is a student run arm of the Kiwanis Club on campus doing service projects throughout the year. Circle K is a new organization on campus looking to grow stronger every year. All students on and off campus are encouraged to participate.

ISA

The International Student Association is open to all students who are interested in International and Diversity Issues. This organization had many successful, funfilled diverse trips and programs.

Orientation Leaders

Students are selected in the spring to serve as leaders for the Summer and Fall Orientation Program.

These students go through a funfilled training to prepare themselves for the new freshmen. This is a job for a person who has a lot of energy and likes to meet new people.

Resident Assistants

Resident Assistants are responsible for the development of a supportive, functioning environment within their assigned areas with in the objectives of the Office of Residence Life. This involves helping to create a climate that is conducive to academic achievement and intellectual stimulation. The RA reports directly to the professional members of the Residence Life Staff. They work as an advisor to individual students and student groups assist with the management of the residence halls.

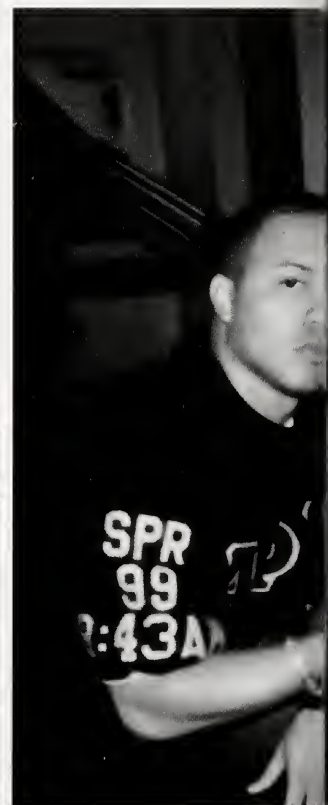

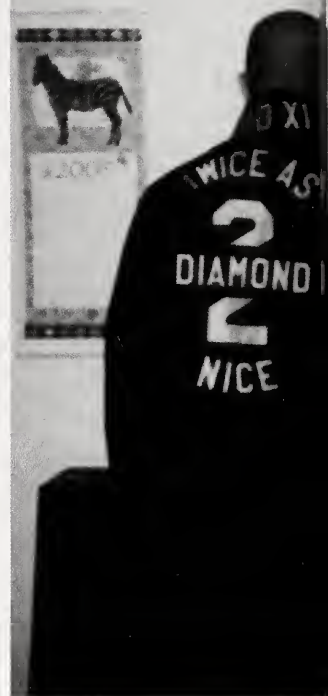

Greek Life

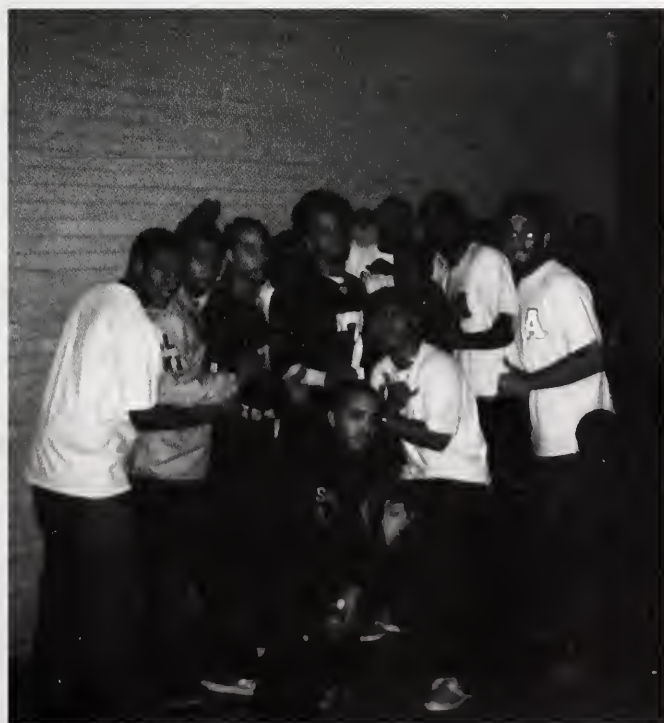

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity

Founded nationally on December 4, 1906, Alpha Phi Alpha is the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for African-Americans with the principles of scholarship, fellowship, good character, and the uplifting of humanity.

Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority
